They asked him to preach again on the following Sabbath, and meanwhile many Jews and devout Gentiles came to him for further instruction. On the next Sabbath the whole city was there, among them very many Jews who refused to believe St. Paul, and openly contradicted him. (Continue in the words of verses 46, 47.) Then the Gentiles were very glad; but the Jews made it impossible for St. Paul and St. Barnabas to remain there, and they went on to Iconium. Tell how they preached in Iconium, but were presently driven out by a plot to stone them, so they went on to Lystra and Derbe and preached throughout the countryside (show the towns on the map). Narrate vividly ch. xiv. 7-19. Let the class discuss these fresh examples of the...
